IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT PATNA
Cr.Misc. No.43399 of 2008
MD.JAWED
Versus
STATE OF BIHAR
----

2. 18.11.2008 Heard Sri Anil Chdnra, Advocate for the petitioner and the learned A.P.P. for the State.

The initial case in the FIR is that the lady escaped from her house after getting up quietly. The father of the lady lodged a report on not getting any information about her suspecting accused Md. Jawed who had taken away. The lady appeared and she gave her statement which is Annexure-2 to the present petition. She pointed out her age of being 17 years but the doctor examined her that she could be 19 years of age. The lady has made out a story of being taken away and being confined by the accused persons at different places against her will but one circumstance which appears from her statement is that she saw her uncle in the very train she was travelling in the company of the accused but did not utter anything with any of the passengers or to her uncle by shouting at her uncle.
